June 2018

Fabulous Fridays!

In Harmony...

Hoochi Coochi

Hoochi Coochi, a hand clapping soul stirring indie blues band from Dover, De rocks the Loockerman Way Plaza for this month's *In Harmony...*concert. Starting in the fall of 2015, members Fatz Hawkins and Danielle Johnson hit the music scene hard and heavy together. Coming from well-established musical projects and closing in on a decade of musical experience, the two joined forces to create something that's sure to make you dance. Mixing genres like blues, soul and adding a touch of Indie, they engage a wide demographic both young and old. Hoochi Coochi picked up longtime drummer Chelsea Grant in 2016 to round out their sound, add movement and flow to their live performance; and Mark Reed in 2017 to add to the rhythm section. Always a crowd favorite, Hoochi Coochi brings people together. They have entertained a wide array of venues and opened for national acts like Low Cut Connie and Larkin Poe. They are sure to get any crowd, young and old, rocking, rolling, and singing about love. Bring chairs or a blanket and join us at Loockerman Way Plaza! In the event of rain, the concert will be held at The library.

Friday, June 1, 6:30 PM

Family Fun: Board Game Night

Join us for a fun family game night! There is something for everyone. Table top games, board games, and card games! Friday, June 8, 6:30 PM

Celebrate the Arts

Introduction to Songwriting

Ever dream of writing your own songs? Local singer-songwriter, Jim Rezac shares his songwriting expertise, and leads a hands-on workshop. Prior experience is not required. Rezac is a Dover native and has played guitar since high school. He's done time in everything from country bands, rockabilly groups, to duos, mostly playing cover tunes.

About eight years ago, Rezac took some snippets of tunes he tried to write fifteen years earlier and finished them. It quickly became his addiction of choice. He hasn't stopped writing since, and has taken every opportunity to play original music that came along. Friday, June 15, 6:30 PM

More Family Fun!

Paddington 2 Pajama Party!

Paddington is happily settled with the Brown family in Windsor Gardens, where he has become a popular member of the community, spreading joy and marmalade wherever he goes. While searching for the perfect present for his beloved Aunt Lucy's 100th birthday, Paddington spots a unique pop-up book in Mr. Gruber's antique shop, and embarks upon a series of odd jobs to buy it. But when the book is stolen, it's up to Paddington and the Browns to unmask the thief. Watch the film and enjoy fun crafts and activities to go along with the movie. Fun for the whole family! 1:43. Rated PG. Friday, June 22, 6:30 PM

Last Friday Bombshell: the Hedy Lamarr Story

The bittersweet, but winning, new documentary about beautiful Hollywood actress Hedy Lamarr is full of scandals, missed opportunities, catastrophes, and disappointments. To quote a famous film, you're in for a bumpy ride when you see it. The biggest surprise for the audience is that Lamarr was an inventor and on a large scale, too. One of the most beautiful women of the Thirties and Forties was also one of the most intelligent. Lamarr's thinking and tireless work paved the way for wi-fi, GPS, Bluetooth and wireless phones, and even helped win World War II! She was inspired to invent when Nazi U-Boats torpedoed a ship carrying 83

Life-Wide Learning

schoolchildren. You could say, "And the rest is history," except that Lamarr's story was little known until the making of this terrific film. Mick LaSalle of the San Francisco Chronicle says, "The movie reveals and demonstrates over and over that Lamarr was a fascinating and brilliant person, a true eccentric with considerable will and personal courage." She was "a victim of the misogyny of her era and her own impulsive decisions," according to Colin Covert of the Minneapolis Star Tribune, who says she "emerges as a complex self-mythologizer who invented her own reality as skillfully as she rebuilt a toy music box when she was 5." Alan Ng of Film Threat came up with one of the most interesting readings of the film: "The real tragedy against humanity uncovered by Bombshell," he says, is "the millions of ideas that never came to light because society refused to listen to women." 1:30. ### The 20 Books You Must Read

By Robin Zlotnick

There are so many books in the world and so little time! We can't spend our entire lives reading, and if we could, we probably wouldn't make it through every book that's been written. But if you are a lover of the written word, or you are curious about the human condition, or you have an insatiable appetite for learning, there are certain books that everyone should read. The people of Reddit created a list of the books they believe should be on everyone's reading list.

The Origins of Totalitarianism by Hannah Arendt
Beginnings: The Story of Origins--of Mankind, Life, the Earth, the Universe by Isaac Asimov
Fahrenheit 451 by Ray Bradbury
The 7 Habits of Highly Effective People by Stephen R. Covey
Guns, Germs, and Steel by Jared Diamond
Man's Search for Meaning by Victor Frankl
Rethinking Incarceration by Dominique Gilliard
Outliers by Malcolm Gladwell
Bad Science by Ben Goldacre
Sapiens by Yuval Noah Harari
A Brief History of Time by Stephen Hawking
Siddhartha by Herman Hesse
An Eternal Golden Braid by Douglas R. Hofstadter
On Writing by Stephen King
Passing by Nella Larsen
The Big Short by Michael Lewis.
Come as You Are by Emily Nagoski
The Art of War by Sun Tzu
Consider the Fork by Bee Wilson
A People's History of The United States by Howard Zinn
