

Study Rooms General Policy:

The Library's study rooms are a silent workspace for up to 4 people. There are two study rooms available. Study rooms are free to use. Larger meeting rooms are available for rent for non-profit organizations and government agencies.

Study rooms are available for individual or small group use only. Study rooms may not be used by organizations affiliated with profit-making or partisan political sponsorship; sectarian religious services or instruction; private parties, celebrations, or private clubs.

In order to use one of the Library's study rooms, patrons will need to sign in at the Adult Services desk on the second floor. When finished, patrons must sign out of the study room at the Adult Services desk.

Patrons younger than 13 must have a parent or guardian present to use a study room.

Use of study rooms is limited to 120 minutes (2 hours), once per day.

Space in the study rooms is first come, first served, unless a reservation is made prior. Reservations can be made up to 4 weeks in advance at the Adult Services desk. Reservations for study rooms will be held for 30 minutes after the schedule time.

Study room users must adhere to all Library policies. Library study rooms are silent work spaces. Patrons wishing to have conversations may use chairs and tables located throughout the building. Food and drink are prohibited.
