The ultimate responsibility for library programming rests with the Library Director. The Library staff work cooperatively to plan and implement programs.

All Library programs are open to the public. The Library's philosophy of open access to information and ideas extends to Library programming; and the Library does not knowingly discriminate through its programming. Programs must comply with the Library's Meeting Room Policy which states that programs are open to the public, free of charge and prohibit commercial advertising or direct solicitation.

Some programs may be restricted by age level and residency. Registration may be required for planning purposes or when space is limited. Programs may be held on site or off site. Any sales of products at Library programs must be approved by the Library.

Programs that are derogatory and/or discriminate against gender, age, race, ethnicity, religion and/or sexual orientation will not be considered. Programs are not used for commercial, religious, partisan purposes or the solicitation of business. Any program asking individuals to sign a petition form will not be permitted to do so on the Library premises.

Program proposals from the public which complement the Mission of the Library are welcome and will be considered. Proposals must be submitted in writing. The Submission Form is attached and may be requested at the Library.

Program proposals will be considered and notification made of either approval or disapproval within four (4) weeks of receipt of the proposal. It is expected that a minimum of six (6) weeks will be required from the time a Program Proposal has been approved until its implementation.

All proposals will be reviewed according to the above criteria.

The Library reserves the right to make the final decision regarding content and presentation of all programming.
